

Certified Instructor Program OVERVIEW

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

BECOME A CERTIFIED INSTRUCTOR OF AWARD-WINNING PROGRAMS

If you're a Human Resources, EEO, Training, or other professional with strong facilitation skills and a commitment to building and modeling a civil, inclusive and productive workplace, consider becoming an ELI® Certified Instructor. Our Certified Instructor Program (CIP) offers a dynamic, interactive course to give you the knowledge and skills needed to deliver ELI's award-winning learning solutions to your Agency.

Our train-the-trainer program consists of a three-day, hands-on workshop where participants learn the foundation of ELI's learning philosophy, methodologies and course content. You will experience a Civil Treatment® course as a participant, and then have the opportunity to practice presenting course segments yourself.

CIVIL TREATMENT BASICS CERTIFICATION

In this CIP, participants practice and explore the learning philosophy and methodologies of Civil Treatment for Leaders and Civil Treatment for Employees training programs. Once certified, participants will know how to facilitate these two courses for maximum impact to their Agency.

BUILDING AN INCLUSIVE WORKPLACE CERTIFICATION

In this CIP, participants will explore and practice teaching our diversity and inclusion program, Civil Treatment: Building an Inclusive Workplace for Leaders and Employees. Upon certification, participants will be equipped with the skills to build highly inclusive teams and leverage peoples' differences to maximize mission effectiveness.

You may attend one of our hands-on workshops specifically for the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. and across the U.S. in other regions. Certification sessions are also available at your site if you have a minimum of four participants. Earn up to 20 Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI) credits by participating in the CIP.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

As a certified instructor, you'll join more than 10,000 individuals in ELI's Certified Instructor Community™ (CIC), who are helping their organizations build professional and collaborative workplace cultures.

Membership in the CIC provides exclusive, ongoing learning and networking opportunities, legal and current trend updates, and other incentives via the password-protected instructor section of the ELI website.

Best of all, your certification is transferable should you change positions within your Agency or move to another Agency.
