

Virtual Instructor-Led Training

SOLUTIONS

ELI brings a live classroom training experience to everyone, anywhere.

ELI's award winning learning solutions that help change behaviors at work, can now be delivered in a virtual instructor-led (VILT) format. VILT leverages the best learning methods of live classroom training with web-based technology.

The platform is easy to use and more engaging than a typical webinar or e-learning program. This virtual training is a cost effective, time efficient solution – with no travel costs and less time away from the job.

Virtual Instructor-Led Training

Live | Interactive | Effective

ELI's VILT is a live, interactive experience that will unite and captivate remote audiences from wherever they are located. This delivery option is specifically designed to engage employees without compromising the learning experience.

VILT Features

- Live instruction from a professional trainer
- Real time Q&A
- Live face-to-face discussion
- Chat
- Polling
- Breakout sessions

Whether at the office, home, or on the road - logging in is easy and designed to quickly engage participants. This is not your typical "check the box" training.
